Zubek endorsed by Republican Party of Cuyahoga County

STRONGSVILLE, Ohio – Anthony P. Zubek, a candidate for council-at-large in Strongsville, has received the endorsement of the Republican Party of Cuyahoga County (RPCC). Zubek said his candidacy is based on the city's need for fresh, experienced leadership on City Council.

The endorsement of the Republican Party confirms its confidence that Zubek, a management consultant, will provide that fresh approach.

"The endorsement of the RPCC Central and Executive Committees gives additional credibility to my ability to serve the citizens of Strongsville as their councilman-at-large," Zubek said.

While the city has experienced rapid growth, Zubek said, council leadership has neglected to act on a variety of issues that impact residents.

"The lack of leadership and concern that the incumbent candidates have shown for the citizens of Strongsville can be seen in the Ice Rink black hole, the lack of a cable public access channel and the 1996 Comprehensive Plan that went nowhere for seven years," Zubek said.

Elections will be held on November 8, 2005.
