Today's Business Products to sponsor Chili Open Golf Classic

PARMA, Ohio - Today's Business Products has signed on as a corporate sponsor for the 15th annual Chili Open Golf Classic. The annual event, hosted by the Rotary Club of Strongsville with support of other area Rotary clubs in Western Cuyahoga County, has raised more than $900,000 for local charities over the past 14 years.

The 15th annual Chili Open Golf Classic will take place February 25, 2006 from 9 a.m to 4 p.m.

The Chili Open Golf Classic, held at the Cuyahoga County Fairgrounds, gives golfers a once-a year chance to play outdoor golf in February on three nine-hole courses with 65-yard fairways.

"We've been involved with Chili Open since its first year," said Rick Voigt, owner of Today's Business Products. "It has been a great opportunity to for us to give back to the community and have lots of fun."

In addition to brisk February golf, the Chili Open Golf Classic offers a day of family fun. A heated clubhouse gives golfers a place to thaw out and enjoy all the food they can eat. Games, prizes, contests and a lot of fun are also part of the event. A live auction is conducted by local sports and media celebrities.

The 2005 event, which drew more than 700 golfers and 200 volunteers, benefited the following charities: Malachi House, JD Breast Cancer Foundation, Boy Scouts of America, Ohio Boys Town, Berea Childrens' Home and Family Services, HELP Foundation, Applewood Centers/Jones Home, Camp Cheerful/Achievement Centers for Children, Womankind, Arrupe Neighborhood Partnership Program, The Singing Angels and Strongsville Safety Town

Corporate sponsors this year included: Today's Business Products, Wendy's, Sherwin Williams, Cleveland Clinic Health System, Lakewood Hospital, Williams Ford, Gene Norris GMC, B'laster, Pfizer and RMS (Real Estate Management Services).

A variety of corporate sponsorship opportunities are available for the 2006 event. For information about sponsoring the 2006 Chili Open, contact Andy Motz, at 216-651-9917.
